

C A R I A D

André Stoffels
Chief Financial Officer

Dr. André Stoffels is the Chief Financial Officer of CARIAD. An experienced automotive strategist and financial manager, he has more than two decades of expertise in digital transformation, technology and change management. Before joining CARIAD, André Stoffels successfully led the financial turnaround of the FAW-Volkswagen joint venture in China as its Executive First Vice President of Finance.

Stoffels began his professional journey at McKinsey & Company and was part of the Silicon Valley tech community, founding an e-payment start-up in Mountain View, California. He joined VW Group in 2004 as Head of Corporate Strategy at Audi before taking over as CFO of Volkswagen Group España Distribución in 2012 and subsequently becoming CFO of Ducati in 2015.

André Stoffels has studied electrical and mechanical engineering in France, The United States and Germany and holds degrees from RWTH Aachen, the University of Californian in Berkley and the TU Darmstadt. His studies and international career have made him proficient in Chinese, French, Spanish, Italian, English, and Catalan.

CONTACT

LinkedIn